'AATMNI RBHAR BHARAT' GETS IMMENSE SUPPORT ACROSS THE COUNTRY

The people of Bihar have spoken their mind. The people across the country have spoken their mind. The thumping victory in Bihar was reinforced by many scintillating laurels won in the by-elections held in different states across the country. The clear and convincing verdict of the people of Bihar found its echo in the impressive victory across the country. In a clear message, the people have expressed themselves in one voice voting and supporting BJP and NDA while showing immense faith in the leadership of Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi. The politics of false propaganda, negative politics and malicious and manufactured narrative once again were rejected and defeated. In fact, it shows a rising India which is united and unstoppable even in the face of crisis like Covid-19 pandemic. While even the most developed countries across the world are still contending with the pandemic, the success of Indian democracy appears astounding to the world.

Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi has rightly said that Bihar true to its reputation of being the cradle of democracy has once again given its verdict strengthening the true democratic voices across the country. While the NDA represented an alliance which promises to take the state forward with its futuristic vision of 'Aatmnirbhar Bihar', the alliance of RJD, Congress and Communist represented divisive and regressive forces based on casteist, dynastic and sectarian nexus. While RJD-Congress believes in dynastic politics and family rule, their ally Communists believed in violence and anarchy in the society. The people of Bihar have not yet forgotten the fifteen years of 'Jungle raj' of Lalu regime which not only plunged the state into backwardness but also unleashed unrestrained violence and anarchy leaving law and order at the mercy of mafias and criminals. The loot of public money and massive corruption at every level made the life miserable for every section of society in the state. The NDA government not only brought Bihar out of the vicious cycle of corruption, violence and anarchy but also paved the way for good governance and development in the state. Bihar not only recovered from the 'Jungle Raj' of Lalu regime but now looks forward to a promising future making its remarkable achievements on various parameters of development count on national level. The BJP National President Shri JP Nadda has rightly said that people have chosen 'LED Raj' over 'Lantern Raj' and expressed their unflinching faith in the leadership of Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi.

The massive victory in Madhya Pradesh, clean sweep in Gujarat, victories in Uttar Pradesh, Manipur, Telangana and Karnataka and huge victories in Ladakh Hill Council and in local body polls of Dadra and Nagar Haveli along with Bihar are indicative of the surging support for BJP across the country. The BJP has gained from east to west and from north to south proving that the positive approach in politics wins massive people's support in the country. The political parties relying on negative politics to the extent of jeopardizing national interests through false and malicious propaganda are continuously punished by the people making them bite dust in every election. The leadership provided by Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi during Covid-19 pandemic, providing immense relief to poorest of the poor, senior citizens, farmers, migrant labourers, women, divyangs and other sections of the society during pandemic, huge reform initiatives taken on almost every sector and keeping the national morale high through bold decisions and massive 'Seva Hi Sangthan' programme launched by millions of BJP Karyakartas to serve the people during pandemic have been unequivocally hailed by the people across the country. The onward march of nation towards an 'Aatmnirbhar Bharat' has received immense support from the people across the country paving the path for emergence of 'New India' which finds opportunities in challenges and is capable of turning every tide in its favour. ■

THE BJP HAS GAINED FROM EAST TO WEST AND FROM NORTH TO SOUTH PROVING THAT THE POSITIVE APPROACH IN POLITICS WINS MASSIVE PEOPLE'S SUPPORT IN THE COUNTRY.

PEOPLE IN BIHAR ONCE AGAIN GIVE CLEAR MANDATE TO NDA

Defying some of the exit polls and assumed anti-incumbency factor, the people of Bihar reposed their faith in the leadership of Shri Narendra Modi and NDA government.

the people of Bihar once again reposed their faith in the leadership of Shri Narendra Modi and NDA government.

As per the current analysis the women, poor and deprived section of society played crucial role in ensuring NDA's victory in the state. According to the data released by Election Commission the female voter turnout was recorded at 59.7 percent, higher than both overall polling of both 57.05 percent and 54.7 percent male turnout. Of the 38 districts in Bihar, 23 reported higher voter turnout of women than that of men. In all these 23 districts, NDA did better in terms of winning seats.

The BJP has gained massively in this election. In 2015, its tally was 53 out of the 157 seats it contested; in 2020, out of the 110 seats it contested, the BJP has won 74, taking the NDA to victory. The party's victory in Bihar is the result of people's faith in PM Shri Modi, and it is now clear that voters of Bihar have rejected dynasty, casteism and politics of appeasement.

A day after the BJP-led National Democratic Alliance (NDA) retained power in the Bihar Assembly elections, Shri Modi addressed party workers in Delhi. He said the BJP was the only party to increase its seats, despite being in power for three terms -- the BJP managed to garner 19.5 per cent votes in this election. It was the result of a well-targeted ground work by the party karyakartas that the BJP has managed to make people relate with development-oriented politics in the state.

PM Shri Modi had addressed election rallies in Sasaram, Gaya, Bhagalpur, Darbhanga, Muzaffarpur, Patna, Chapra, East Champaran, Samastipur, West Champaran, Saharsa and Forbesganj and sought votes in favour of the NDA candidates.

Apart from this, BJP National President Shri JP Nadda played a crucial role in party's victory

@Devendra Fadnavis
Thanks Bihar!

The people of Bihar have made it clear that they want development, not Jungle Raj! They stamped on leadership of Our beloved Prime Minister @narendramodi Ji. And shown full faith in @NitishKumarji. I congratulate the people of Bihar, and greet them.

The people in Bihar once again gave clear mandate to NDA which attained majority in the state assembly. The NDA with 125 seats out of 243, registered a thumping victory in elections. The BJP which had contested 110 seats, won 74 and JD(U) which fought 115, won 43 seats with four seats each won by NDA constituents HAM and VIP. The opposition Mahagathbandhan led by RJD stood at 110.

It was the first election amid Covid crisis. Political pundits had speculated that there was huge anti-incumbency against NDA Government in Bihar as it had been ruling Bihar for a long time. Defying some of the exit polls and assumed anti-incumbency factor,

@Nityanand Rai

Congratulations to the central leadership and the NDA workers for the clear majority for the NDA in Bihar. This mandate is to carry forward the resolve of bright and self-reliant Bihar of the future.

in Bihar. In the assembly constituencies where he had meetings, he succeeded in helping the NDA candidate win most of the seats. Shri Nadda completely threw himself into the Bihar elections as he reached every nook and corner of the state during the election by travelling thousands of kilometres across Bihar to create a favourable environment for the party. Throughout his visits, he was taking the feedback of grassroots workers. Wherever some shortcomings were discovered, he made a strategy to rectify it. Finding a leader from Delhi in every nook and corner of Bihar infused enthusiasm among the grassroots karyakartas.

The BJP National President launched a campaign during covid lockdown in the name of 'Sewa Hi

@-Bhupender Yadav

The enthusiasm with which the voters of the state took part in the celebration of democracy in the Bihar which was held in the midst of Corona situation is itself exemplary. The manner in which women voters of Bihar have enthusiastically participated in the elections is a good sign.

Sangthan' to provide food and ration to crores of people capitalizing on the strength of the party organization spread across the country to the extent that the party even arranged slippers for migrant labourers who were returning home. Since Bihar is one of the states from where workers migrate, BJP's campaign sent out a very positive message among poor voters. In Bihar, party leaders consider the service done during the pandemic as the secret behind the NDA's victory and the BJP's rich haul of seats.

Through his rallies, Shri Nadda countered the claims of RJD leader Tejashwi Yadav about jobs

WE ARE IN EVERY CORNER OF INDIA, IN EVERYONE'S HEART: PM NARENDRA MODI

P rime Minister Shri Narendra Modi congratulated the people of Bihar and BJP Karyakartas for thumping victory of NDA in the state. Addressing the grand 'Thanks giving programme' organized at the BJP National Headquarters in New Delhi, the PM said that family-run parties are biggest threat to nation's democracy. He also thanked women, the 'silent voters' in Bihar for ensuring NDA victory. The National Democratic Alliance (NDA) is again given mandate by the people in elections, the results of which were declared on November 10, 2020. PM Shri Narendra Modi also praised the BJP karyakartas for their hard work for victory in by-election held simultaneously across the country. The programme organized to celebrate the grand success of the party in the Bihar legislative assembly elections and by-elections held across the country was also addressed by BJP National President Shri Jagat Prakash Nadda and attended by BJP Parliament Board members and a large number of party Karyakartas. The Union Defence Minister Shri Rajnath Singh, Union Home Minister Shri Amit Shah, Union Minister Shri Nitin Gadkari and BJP National General Secretary (Organization) Shri B.L. Santhosh were also present on the dais on the occasion.

While addressing the party Karyakartas Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi said that I thank the people of this great land today, the Election Commission, the country's security forces and the local administration for successfully and peacefully conducting these elections. Defeat and win have their place in the election results, but this process of elections is a matter of pride for every Indian. Therefore, I congratulate the entire nation. He said that it was not easy to conduct these elections during current crisis

This election result is also the result of the efficient and effective strategy of Shri Jagat Prakash Nadda, the National President of Bharatiya Janata Party. I heartily congratulate the National President for the impressive victory in Bihar and in the by-elections held in various states across the country.

of Corona, but our democratic systems are so strong and transparent that even in the midst of this crisis they have made the world to recognize the power of India. This election result is also the result of the efficient and effective strategy of Shri Jagat Prakash Nadda, the National President of Bharatiya Janata Party. I heartily congratulate the National President for the impressive victory in Bihar and in the by-elections held in various states across the country.

The Prime Minister said that the Bharatiya Janata Party won in the east, hoisted its flag in Manipur, registered its victory in the West in Gujarat along with victory in Uttar Pradesh and Madhya Pradesh and also got huge success in Karnataka and Telangana in the south. BJP is the only national level party whose flag is hoisted across the country now. We were once limited to two seats but today we are in every corner of India, in everyone's heart.

The Prime Minister said that many times it is said that issues like bank accounts, gas connections, pucca houses, facilities for self-employment, good roads, good railway stations, better airports, modern bridges on rivers, internet connectivity do not matter in elections. The people are repeatedly telling that such issues are the real issues. He further said that we will take every decision that is in the interest of the country and in the interest of the people of the country. Today, the biggest reason for the affection of the people that the country is showing on the BJP and the NDA, is that the BJP, the NDA has made the development of the country, the development of the people, the paramount goal of our party.

PRIME MINISTER SHRI NARENDRA MODI IN HIS ADDRESS SAID:

- Today BJP is the only national party in the country in which the poor, dalits, oppressed, exploited, deprived, see their representation, see their future.
- Today, BJP is the only national party in the country which understands the needs of every section of the society and working continuously for them.
- Today, the youth of the country have huge confidence in BJP. If there is any voice of the dalits-oppressed and the exploited, it is the BJP.
- If someone is trying day and night to fulfill the dreams of the middle class of the country, then it is the BJP.
- For the empowerment of women, the party which is being trusted to ensure their dignity and pride is the BJP.
- Whether it is economic reforms, agricultural reforms or security of the country, education, new initiatives in the interest of farmers and labourers, it is the BJP on which the country is relying the most today.

PM Shri Modi praised the efforts made by the karyakartas in Bihar and said, if you ask me today about the Bihar election results, then my answer is also clear like the people's mandate - the mantra of 'Sabka Saath, Sabka Vikas, Sabha Vishwas' has won in Bihar. Development works have won in Bihar. Truth lives in Bihar, trust has won! The youth of Bihar have won, the mothers and sisters and daughters have won! The poor of Bihar have won, the farmers have won! This is the victory of the aspirations of Bihar, the victory of Bihar's pride. I will tell my brothers and sisters in Bihar, you have once again proved why Bihar is called the land of democracy. You have again proved that Biharis are indeed good judges and also aware of the issues. We all BJP Karyakartas, NDA activists led by Nitishji, will spare no effort to realise the resolve of development of Bihar with every Biharwasi.

Shri Narendra Modi said that I have been watching on TV since yesterday, there is a discussion in newspapers about 'Silent Voters'. The BJP has a section of 'Silent Voters' who are repeatedly voting for it, continuously voting for the party. The mothers of the country, sisters and women of the country are these 'Silent Voters,' I am witnessing the rise of a 'New India'.

Shri Narendra Modi said the younger generation of India holds true devotion to democracy. In a strong democracy, he sees opportunities and is more confident of protecting his rights, but unfortunately the network of family parties from Kashmir to Kanyakumari is becoming a threat to democracy. He knows the youth of the country very well. The family parties are the biggest threat to democracy.

The Prime Minister said that our aim should be that the party should be a great platform of opportunity for every worker and every citizen. We have to keep the inner democracy strong in our party. We have to make our party a living example of vibrant democracy. I call upon the youth of the country, they should come forward and join the service of the country through the Bharatiya Janata Party.

PM Shri Modi also underlined the murder of party Karyakartas and said that in some parts of the country some people feel that they will fulfill their plans by killing the BJP Karyakartas. Those who are not able to face us democratically, some such people have taken the path of killing our party Karyakartas. I request them all earnestly, I do not warn them, and the people will do that work. He further said, elections come and go, but democracy cannot be played by playing the game of death and no one can get votes by playing the game of death, read these words written on the wall.

BJP NATIONAL PRESIDENT ADDRESSES THE GATHERING:

BJP National President Shri JP Nadda hailed the victory of ruling National Democratic Alliance in Bihar assembly polls, saying people of the state have chosen 'Vikasraj' over 'Gundaraj'.

Speaking on the occasion, Shri JP Nadda said the verdict shows how Shri Narendra Modi government has taken welfare schemes to the masses.

The Hon'ble PM has done the remarkable task of advancing the country and society with his dedication, untiring efforts and hard work. It is going to give a new vision and direction to the country. parts of the country like Madhya Pradesh, Gujarat, Uttar Pradesh, Karnataka, Telangana and Manipur. I thank the great people of the country for the blessings that the people have given to the BJP from Bihar as well as from every part of the country. From Kutch to Ladakh, the people have expressed their support to the works of Hon'ble Prime Minister and the policies of BJP. Under the leadership of Hon'ble Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi, the Bharatiya Janata Party has been winning elections after elections. It is enough to tell how deep and unwavering trust the people have reposed on the Prime Minister and the BJP.

Shri JP Nadda also said that it was the first major election after the lockdown brought to save the country from Covid -19 pandemic. It was a tough challenge for us too, but everyone from every corner of the country, including Bihar, has supported the lotus with one voice and approved the public welfare policies and development works of the Hon'ble Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi. When, even the most powerful countries had surrendered before Corona, the Prime Minister, taking timely and bold decisions, not only protected 130 crore countrymen but also united the country to fight against it while bringing reforms and leading the country towards self-reliance. These election results show that all the steps taken by the Prime Minister reached the people and every person standing on the last rung of the society was benefited from these steps, whether it is 'Aatmanirbhar Bharat Abhiyan', Vocal for Local, Welfare Package for poor or Garib Kalyan Rojgar Yojana. He said that during the Covid-19 pandemic when all the parties had locked themselves, it was the Bharatiya Janata Party that pledged itself to the service of humanity at the call of the Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi launching 'Seva Hi Sangathan' campaign. The Prime Minister's leadership and his untiring efforts were appreciated by the entire world. The Bihar election results have made it clear that the people of Bihar have unwavering faith in the leadership of Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi.

Praising the special economic package, BJP National President said that the Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi had announced a special package of Rs. 1.25 lakh crore for the development of Bihar in 2015. In the last five years, as per his promise, he had not only given Rs 1.25 lakh crore to Bihar, but in addition to this he also gave Rs 40,000 crore to the state for other important projects. In Bihar, the double engine government worked day and night for the development of Bihar and the NDA government of the state implemented the development plans of the Hon'ble Prime Minister on the ground. The people of Bihar have also immensely supported the actions and policies of the double engine government of the state in this election.

Shri JP Nadda said that while expressing their deep faith in the ongoing development journey under the leadership of Hon'ble Prime Minister, the people of the entire nation including Bihar chose 'Vikas Raj' over 'Gunda Raj'. We are all well aware of the way in which the opposition tried to mislead the people through malicious propaganda by suppressing the facts in the elections, but the people of Bihar accepted the development by denying muscle power and rejecting the 'Lantern Era' and accepted the 'Era of LED', while rejecting 'Jungle Raj', the rule of corruption, people accepted an honest and transparent government in the state.

The BJP National President said that there was a lot of discussion in the Bihar Legislative Assembly elections that 'Bihar me Ka Ba' ' but the people of Bihar told that 'Bihar me development Ba'. He concluded by assuring the Hon'ble Prime Minister that every single Karyakarta of the party will follow the path shown by him and will move forward unitedly under his leadership for the bright future of India. ■

BJP WINS ASSEMBLY BY-ELECTIONS

IN MADHYA PRADESH, GUJARAT, UTTAR PRADESH AND MANIPUR WITH FLYING COLORS

The Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) karyakartas have all the reasons to celebrate early Diwali as the party won recently held byelections in different states with flying colors. Under the dynamic leadership of Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi, the party triumphed in Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Gujarat, Mainpur and other assembly by-elections.

The result of the by-elections shows the dedication and hard work of the workers under the visionary leadership of PM Shri Modi following the mantra of 'Sabka Saath - Sabka Vikas - Sabka Vishwas'.

The Modi Government launched various pro-people welfare policies and the people got benefited from these schemes in every nook and corner of the country. This is the reason people have extended unequivocal support to the BJP.

MADHYA PRADESH

In Madhya Pradesh the ruling Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) has emerged victorious. The BJP had 107 MLAs in 230-member House. The results have strengthened chief minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan government. The BJP delivered a massive blow to Congress in the byelections. The ruling party has won 19 of 28 seats that went to polls on November 3. The Congress, on the other hand, could win just 9 of 28 seats. A total of 70.27 per cent voter turnout was recorded during the by-polls which were contested by 355 candidates, including 12 ministers.

On the occasion Madhya Pradesh Chief Minister Shri Shivraj Singh Chouhan said the outcome proves that voters supported the decision taken by the Congress MLAs to pull down the previous Kamal Nath dispensation.

GUJARAT

The ruling Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) swept the by-elections for eight assembly constituencies in Gujarat, voting for which took place on November 3. Almost all candidates won convincingly, with the margin of 4,649 in Morbi being the narrowest.

The eight constituencies for which by-polls were held are Abdasa, Karjan, Morbi, Gadhada, Dhari, Limbdi, Kaprada and Dangs.

Taking a jibe at the Congress, Chief Minister Shri Vijay Rupani called the party a 'sinking' ship, adding that the bypoll results were just a 'trailer' of the assembly elections in the state which will take place in 2022.

UTTAR PRADESH

BJP won a total of 6 seats in the state while Samajwadi Party managed only 1 seat in Uttar Pradesh by-polls. Polling was held on 7 seats. The seven seats which went to bypolls included Ghatampur, Malhani, Bangarmau, Deoria, Naugaon Sadat, Bulandshahr and Tundla. A voter turnout of more than 53 percent was recorded in the state bypolls for which 88 candidates were in the fray. Uttar Pradesh Chief minister Shri Yogi Adityanath said the exceptional performance of the BJP in the bypolls give a "clear indication" of the party's chances in the upcoming 2022 state Assembly elections. "The BJP has repeated its poll performance of the 2017 Assembly polls and 2019 Lok Sabha elections. These are clear indications that the party will perform well again in the upcoming 2022 Assembly elections. I thank the people for coming forward to vote."

KARNATAKA

The BJP swept the by-polls to two assembly seats in Karnataka by wresting them from the opposition Congress and JD(S).

Apart from winning the bypolls to two Assembly seats in Karnataka, the ruling BJP has also won four legislative council seats in the state, the polls for which were held on October 28 and results announced on October 25. BJP candidates Sankanur V, Chidanand Gowda, Sashil Namoshi and Puttanna emerged victorious in the Karnataka West and South East Graduates' constituencies and the Karnataka North East and the Bangalore Teachers' constituencies, respectively. With these victories the BJP has become the single-largest party in the 75-member legislative council for the first time in five years with 31 seats, followed by the Congress at 28 and the JD(S) at 14, along with four Independents.

TELANGANA

In byelection in Telangana, BJP candidate M Raghunandan Rao has won with a majority of 1,079 votes against his nearest TRS candidate S. Sujatha on Dubbak assembly seat for which counting was held at on 10 November.

MANIPUR

In Manipur, the BJP won the Wangoi, Singhat and Wangjing Tentha and Saitu Manipur Assembly by-poll seats. The by-polls held on November 7 were necessitated after Congress MLAs of these four seats resigned from the assembly and joined the ruling BJP.

In Nagaland, BJP ally NDPP retained one seat.

PM'S MESSAGE

On this occasion PM Shri Narendra Modi said, I thank the people of Dubbak for blessing the BJP in Telangana. This is a historic win and gives us strength to serve the state with greater vigour. Our Karyakartas worked very hard and I laud their noteworthy efforts in furthering BJP's development agenda.

He also thanked the people of Gujarat saying, "bond between the people of Gujarat & BJP is unbreakable! This affection is again seen in the 8 by-polls where the BJP made a clean sweep.

"I thank the people of Gujarat for the support. I appreciate the work of the local unit and the state government under Shri Vijay Rupani," he said in a tweet.

He further said, "Powered by the progressive agenda of the Government under Shivraj Singh Chouhan and the hardwork of the state unit, our Party has emerged as the unparalleled choice of the people. I thank the people of MP for blessing BJP in the by-polls held across the state".

In Uttar Pradesh, the pro-people policies of the Centre and UP Government under Shri Yogi Adityanath have endeared our party to the citizens. They have given unequivocal support to the BJP, for which I express gratitude. I also appreciate the good work of the state BJP unit, the PM Shri Modi said in a tweet. ■

BJP WILL COME TO POWER WITH A TWO-THIRD MAJORITY IN THE ASSEMBLY POLLS NEXT YEAR: AMIT SHAH

Stating that he can sense massive public anger against the Mamata Banerjee government in West Bengal, Union Home Minister Shri Amit Shah on November 5 said that the days of the Trinamool Congress government were numbered and that the BJP will come to power with a two-third majority in the Assembly polls next year.

“I want to appeal to the people of Bengal to uproot the TMC government and give the BJP an opportunity to form the next government. We will transform the state into Sonar Bangla (Golden Bengal),” he said.

On a two-day visit to the state, Shri Amit Shah landed in Kolkata on November 4 and reached Bankura, on the western part of the state, on November 5. He began his visit by garlanding the statue of Birsa Munda, a renowned freedom fighter who came from the Munda tribe.

While talking to media Shri Shah said, “I am in West Bengal since last night and can sense the massive public anger against the Mamata Banerjee government. We are confident of bringing in change in the state under the leadership of Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi. The Mamata Banerjee government has stopped benefits of Central schemes from reaching to the tribal people, the poor, the farmers, and people from the backward classes in Bengal.

“If Mamata Banerjee thinks that by stopping implementation of Central schemes in Bengal she will stop the BJP, then she is mistaken. The way the state government has oppressed BJP workers here, I am confident that the death knell has begun for the TMC government.”

He said: “The tribal people of Bengal are not getting benefit of housing schemes started by the Centre. The poor are not getting healthcare schemes and the farmers are not getting the annual aid of Rs 6,000. If you (Banerjee) let these people enjoy the benefits of these schemes, they may at least spare some thoughts for you.”

After the garlanding ceremony, Shri Shah held an internal meeting with party workers and leaders from 13 districts to chalk out strategies for the next year’s Vidhan Sabha polls.

Later, the Home Minister had lunch at the home of party worker Shri Bibhishan Hansda in tribal-dominated Chaturdihi village, near Bankura town. He was accompanied by Lok Sabha MP and West Bengal BJP President Shri Dilip Ghosh, Union Minister Debashree Chaudhuri, party’s National General Secretary Shri Kailash Vijayvargiya, National Vice-President Shri Mukul Roy, BJP MP Saumitra Khan and senior leader Shri Rahul Sinha.

Shri Shah was offered a traditional Bengali vegetarian meal by the Hansda family and spent some time with them. “Had amazing Bengali food at Shri Vivishan Hansda ji’s home in Chaturdhi village. No words can express their warmth and hospitality,” the Home Minister said in a tweet.

Shri Amit Shah addressed a press conference at the Westin Hotel in Kolkata on the second and last day of his two-day pravasi of West Bengal attacking the anarchist policies of the Trinamool Congress government and called upon the people to overthrow the Mamata government and form the BJP government. Earlier, Shri Shah offered prayers at Dakshineswar Kali Temple. After the puja, Shri Amit Shah while talking to reporters said that he has wished the Mother Kali for the well being of entire state and countrymen.

He said that this land has been the land of Chaitanya Mahaprabhu, Thakur Ramakrishna Paramahansa, Swami Vivekananda and Sri Aurobindo, who empowered the path of devotion and awakened the spiritual consciousness. But unfortunately the politics of appeasement has deeply hurt the rich tradition here. I urge the people of the state to discharge their responsibilities with full dedication to restore the glory of West Bengal, once the center of spiritual and religious awakening.

Shri Amit Shah said that on May 2011, there was a change in West Bengal with the slogan 'Maa-Mati-Manush'. The people of the state also had many expectations and hopes and wanted their aspiration to get appropriate response. Plagued by three decades of communist rule, the command of Bengal was given to the Trinamool Congress. But 10 years later, today the slogan of 'Maa, Mati and Manush' has changed to appeasement, dictatorship and tolabaji. The Trinamool government and the Chief Minister of the state failed to meet the expectations of the people.

Shri Shah, while sharply questioning the Mamata government on the atrocities on women in West Bengal, asked why did Mamta ji not send the crime records of West Bengal to the National Crime Records Bureau since 2018? What are you trying to hide and why? People want to know about the law and order situation of the state. I want to ask Mamta ji seven questions that despite being a woman Chief Minister, what did you do for women safety in Bengal?

1. Why did you stop giving Bengal crime records to NCB from 2018 onwards?
2. Why West Bengal ranks third in the country in crime against women?

3. Why West Bengal tops the country in rape attempts?
4. How is West Bengal ranked first in the country in acid attack and acid attack attempts?
5. Why is West Bengal second in the country in the disappearance of women?
6. Why is West Bengal on top in not finding missing women?
7. The conviction rate in Bengal for crimes against women was only 5.3 percent while the national conviction rate is 22.9 percent, why?

The promises made by the Mamta government to the people of the state proved to be hollow, disappointment and hope turned into anger. A strange kind of atmosphere is visible amidst the people of Bengal. Hundreds of people came to road, wherever I went. When they used to shout slogans of Bharat Mata ki Jai, Vande Mataram, Jai Shri Ram, it was less in our welcome, displaying more anger towards Mamata government.

Shri Amit Shah added that I have come to assure the people of Bengal that you gave opportunity to Congress, gave opportunities to communists again and again and gave two opportunities to Mamta ji. Give one chance to the BJP under the leadership of Modi ji, we promise to make Sonar Bangla within 5 years. Our aim is clear that Bengal should be developed, the borders of the country are secure, infiltration inside Bengal should be stopped. The only goal of the Trinamool Congress and Mamta Didi is to make her nephew, the Chief Minister in the next term. Now the people of Bengal have to decide whether they need 'Parivarvad' or 'Vikasvad'. ■

FIVE YEARS OF HISTORIC DECISION TO IMPLEMENT OROP

OVER RS. 42740 CRORE DISBURSED TO 20,60,220 PENSIONERS/FAMILY PENSIONERS

Government of India took the historic decision to implement One Rank One Pension, OROP by issuing an order on 7.11.2015, benefit effective from 01.07.2014, despite huge financial burden demonstrating its commitment to the welfare of ex-servicemen. Armed Forces Personnel retired upto 30.06.2014 were covered under this Order. Keeping in view the magnitude and complexity of Defence pension, extensive consultations were held with experts and Ex-Servicemen before issue of Government order on implementation of OROP. Ex-Servicemen had been agitating for implementation of OROP nearly for the 45 years, but the same was not implemented before 2015.

OROP implies that uniform pension be paid to the Armed Forces Personnel retiring in the same rank with the same length of service regardless of their date of retirement. Thus, OROP implies bridging the gap between the rate of pension of current and past retirees at periodic intervals.

A sum of Rs. 10795.4 crore has been disbursed to 20,60,220 Defence Forces Pensioners/Family Pensioners as arrears on account of implementation of OROP. The yearly recurring expenditure on account of OROP is about Rs. 7123.38 crores and for about six years starting from 01.07.2014, the total recurring expenditure worked out to approximately Rs. 42740.28 crore. OROP beneficiaries also got the benefit of fixation of pension under 7th CPC while calculating the pension by multiplication factor of 2.57. ■

NATIONAL DEMOCRATS, DEMOCRATIC SOCIALISTS & NATIONAL SOCIALISTS

DEENDAYAL
UPADHYAYA

The Political Development of the modern world has been influenced and shaped by the three concepts of nationalism, democracy and socialism. Chronologically, nationalism is the earliest, and socialism the latest. Taking Europe to be of representative character in this respect, we find that right from the thirteenth to the nineteenth century, its map was drawn and re-drawn according to national urges. Nationalism united the people and forced different united people and forced different principalities to forgo their autonomy in favour of a national government. It also differentiated one set of people from another, and slowly we find that national interests, rather than whims or wished of an individual, increasingly guided the conduct of war and peace. As nations came to acquire a distinctive character, the form of government also became a matter of interest and controversy. When Alexander pope tried to summarily reject all controversies regarding form of government, he only exhibited his subconscious interest in the matter. He wrote :

For forms of Government let

*fools contend;
What ever is administered best,
is best.*

POPE DID NOT ANSWER THE QUESTION

Pope, however, did not answer the knotty problem: under which form of government we get, or can hope to get, or can hope to get, the best administration? Monarchy was the form in vogue then, and all the ills of the Government were due to, or could easily be made to look as due to, that system. Moreover and more political philosophers came forward to question the divine right theory of kingship. All men came to be regarded as equal. All this gave birth to democratic ideas. Interest in city republics of Greece was revived. By the time of the French Revolution democracy had become more than a century for democracy to take practical shape and strike root in the many countries of Europe.

With the growth of industrial revolution it was soon realised that real power rested in the hands of the few. There was exploitation not only in the economic field, but in the political sphere also. The common man was either denied franchise, or conditions in which the right of franchise could be freely exercised, did not exist. The urge for social justice gave birth to a political philosophy—which was termed as socialism. Till Marx made a system of it, socialism was a vague tendency representing the utopian ideals of a number of social workers, trade union leaders and political philosophers. Not that Marx's enunciation of his philosophy lacked any of these traits, or that socialism became any more practicable, but he contributed to socialist thought an analysis and a theory, which elevated it into a definite political philosophy. Even after Marx, there have been socialists who have differed from him, but in their main premises and ultimate objectives they have not been able to make any distinctive mark. The influence of Marxian methodology has made socialism an anathema to many people, and has made it incompatible both with nationalism and democracy.

NATIONALISM IS A FACT

Nationalism is still the single dominate factor influencing policies of the Governments of the world. But there are very few who expressly recognise its force; and some even want to put an end to nationalism, considering it a curse for humanity. The latter have not succeeded in freeing themselves from this elementary urge; they have only created a number of complexes and thus weakened their national policies. Today most people claim to follow a combination of the two ideals. Thus there are national democrats, national socialists, and democratic socialists. Taken singly, there could be nationalists, socialists and democrats.

Most countries of the free world can be included in the first category, viz. national democrats. They take nationalism for granted and keep democracy as an ideal before them. These people are not very much enamoured of socialism and some even consider it to be detrimental to democracy. Nazism and Fascism were forms of national socialism. The communist countries USSR, China, Yugoslavia etc. could also be called national socialist. The only difference that is visible is that the latter do not deify nationalism. But impact of nationalism can easily be noticed. Hitler, by placing an undue stress on nationalism. Definitely roused his own people but antagonized the rest. The communist countries are acting in a subtler manner. By claiming to be a world movement they easily undermine national loyalties of other people and thus serve their own national expansionist designs.

SOCIALISM IS A FORCE

Bhartiya Jana Sangh places equal reliance on nationalism and democracy and recognises that socialism too has some part to play in the present stage or development of the country.

In countries of Asia and Africa that have got their independence from the western colonial powers, the political philosophy in vogue is democratic socialism. Having acquired freedom they seem to have forgotten nationalism, which, in fact, had been the source of inspiration in their freedom struggle. Being associated with the West, they have some faith in democracy. But at the same time they cannot escape the demonstration effect of the fashionable slogan of socialism. Moreover socialism satisfies the lust for power of the cliques that rule and delude the masses. In a society which abounds in poverty and ignorance, socialism has an appeal but it is not a cure. Thus we see that the free and developed countries of the world are national democrats; regimanted—developed or under-developed-ones are national socialists or communists; and free but under-developed countries are democratic socialists. These are broad categories. But there are exceptions which it is difficult to place in any of the three. Pakistan, for example, is neither national democratic nor national socialist.

DEMOCRACY IS A GOAL

India with the Congress Party in power, can be termed a democratic socialist country.

Presently, in the under-developed stage of the country's economy, and in the early period of our independence, due to the legacy of British Parliamentary institutions we can both afford to be socialistic and democratic socialism. Today it simply means assumption of certain responsibilities in the field of economic development by the State. There are certain field where in private capital, due to its limited capacities in an under developed country, cannot possibly enter. The State has to come in. Then there are certain regulatory functions which are a must for a developing State. There is then the question of reducing inequalities. In these respects India has got to be socialist. But there are some harmful effects also. In the first place due to socialism the State definitely takes over a large sphere of enterprise and thus keeps away the entrepreneur even from activities which he can legitimately discharge to the advantage of the State.

The State activities become monopolistic. Here again, to satisfy the socialist craving of the fanatic few, the Government diverts its energies in taking up other industrial activities and/or nationalising what has already been developed by private enterprise. Instead of supplementing economic activity which, in a developing country, is a legitimate responsibility of the State it starts supplanting the already developed industries.

INDIA STANDS FIRMLY WITH COUNTRY'S BRAVE SOLDIERS AND SECURITY FORCES

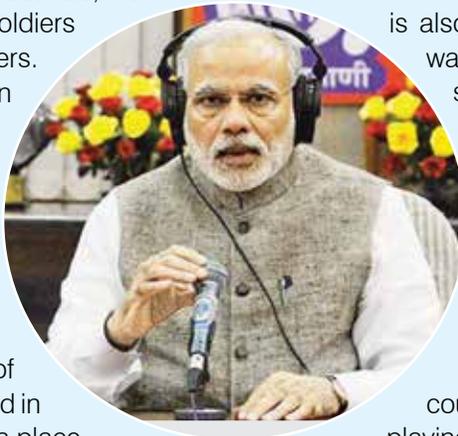

India stands firmly with country's brave soldiers and security forces, Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi said on October 25 as he urged people to light a lamp for soldiers while celebrating festivals amid the novel coronavirus pandemic.

Addressing the nation through his monthly radio programme "Mann Ki Baat", PM Modi said "The soldiers are serving the nation away from their family as they guard the country's borders to ensure that the people in the country are safe from external threats".

"Lots of festivals like Eid, Diwali will take place at this time of the year. During these festivals, we also have to remember our brave soldiers who have also stood at the borders. We have to light a lamp at home, in honour of these brave sons and daughters of Mother India," PM Modi added.

He urged people to celebrate festivals with restraint and to remember the resolve of "vocal for local" while shopping.

"Not only is the popularity of khadi rising, it is also being produced in many places of the world. There is a place in Mexico called Oaxaca, there are many villages in this area where the local villagers weave khadi. Today the khadi of this place has gained popularity by the name Oaxaca khaadi. How khadi reached Oaxaca is no less interesting. In fact a young person of Oaxaca, Mark Brown once watched a movie on Mahatma Gandhi. Brown got so inspired by watching this movie on Babu that he visited Babu's ashram in India, understood him and learnt about him in depth. It was then, that Brown realised that khadi was not just a cloth; it was a complete way of life. Brown was deeply moved by the way khadi was intertwined with the rural economy and self sufficiency. It was here that Brown resolved to work on khadi on his return to Mexico. He introduced the villagers of Oaxaca in Mexico to khadi and trained them. And now Oaxaca khadi has become a brand. The website of this project bears the inscription 'the symbol of Dharma in motion'. You can also find a very interesting interview of Marc Brown on this website. He narrates that initially the people were wary of khadi but ultimately they got interested and a market got ready for it. He states that these are matters related to Ram Rajya, when you fulfill the needs of the people, the people start connecting with you."

He added, "Previously, a large number of people used to gather in Durga Pandal for darshan of Goddess Durga. It was a fair like atmosphere. But this time it did not happen. Earlier, big fairs were also held on Dussehra. But this time their form is also changed. The festival of Ramleela was also a big attraction, but there are some restrictions for it also. This time all large gatherings are banned. There will be Eid, Sharad Purnima, Valmiki Jayanti, Dhantesras, Diwali, Chhatth Pooja, Guru Nanak Dev Jayanti festival in coming days. During this corona crisis, we have to work with restraints," he added.

He said "My dear countrymen, Pulwama in Kashmir is playing an important role in educating the entire country. Today, when children all over the nation do their homework, or prepare notes, somewhere behind this lies the hard work of the people of Pulwama! The Kashmir Valley meets almost 90% demand for the Pencil Slats, timber casings of the entire country, and of that, a very large share comes from Pulwama. Once upon a time we used to import wood for pencils from abroad, but, now our Pulwama is making the country self-sufficient in the field of pencil making. In fact, these Pencil Slats of Pulwama are reducing the gaps between states! Chinar wood of the valley has high moisture content and softness, which makes it most suitable for the manufacture of pencils. In Pulwama, Oukhoo is known as the Pencil Village. Here, several manufacturing units of Pencil Slats are located, which provide employment, and, in these units, a large number of women are employed." ■

IDEOLOGY SHOULD NEVER BE PUT BEFORE NATIONAL INTEREST: PM

P rime Minister Shri Narendra Modi unveiled a statue of Swami Vivekananda in JNU Campus, New Delhi on November 12 through video conferencing. Addressing the JNU students and the youth of the country, the Prime Minister expressed his views on harms of prioritizing ideology over national interest. He said this is one thing that has done great harm to the democratic system of our country. "Because my ideology says this, so in matters of national interest, I will think in the same framework, I will work on the same parameter, this is wrong", said Shri Modi. It is natural to be proud of one's ideology still, on the subjects of national interest, our ideology should be seen standing with the nation not against it, he stressed.

The Prime Minister told the students that in the history of the country, whenever a difficult time arose before the country, people of every ideology came together in the national interest. People of every ideology stood united under the leadership of Mahatma Gandhi in the freedom struggle. They fought for the country together. The country saw the same solidarity during the Emergency. Former Congress leaders and activists were also present in the movement against the Emergency. There were RSS volunteers and Jana Sangh people. Socialists and communists too came together.

Prime Minister Shri Modi stressed that in this solidarity, no one had to compromise on ideology. There was only one purpose - national interest. Therefore, whenever there is a question of national unity, integrity and national interest, taking decisions under the burden of any ideology will lead to the loss for the nation.

The Prime Minister made it clear that idea-sharing and the flow of new ideas need to be kept uninterrupted. Our country is the land where seeds of different intellectual ideas have sprouted and thrived. It is necessary for the youth to strengthen this tradition. Due to this tradition, India is the most vibrant democracy in the world, Shri Modi said.

The Prime Minister put forward the framework of the reform agenda of his government before the students. He added the idea of AtmaNirbhar Bharat has become the collective consciousness of more than 130 crore Indians, has become part of our aspirations. Continuing about the Reforms in India, the Prime Minister urged JNU students to ponder on how the notion of Good Reforms as bad politics changed to good reforms as good politics. He said today, behind the reforms, there is a resolve to make India better in every way. He added intention and determination underlying the Reforms happening today are sincere. He said before ongoing reforms, a safety net is being created and trust is the basis of this safety.

The Prime Minister wished that Swami ji's statue in JNU would inspire everyone and give courage, which Swami Vivekananda wanted to see in every person. He added this statue would teach compassion, which is the mainstay of Swamiji's philosophy. He wished this statue would teach us immense dedication to the nation, teach intense love for our country which is the prime message of Swamiji's life. He wished the statue to inspire the nation for the vision of oneness and to move forward with the vision of youth-led development, which has been the expectation of Swamiji. He wished the statue would continue to inspire us to realize Swamiji's dream of a strong and prosperous India.

Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi also thanked JNU's Vice Chancellor Prof. Mamidala Jagadesh Kumar, JNU's Rector Prof. Rana Pratap Singh and JNU alumnus Dr. Manoj Kumar for this remarkable initiative. ■
